SWEETBRIAR

Nineteen Forty

Anne Dewey EDITOR
Betty Doucett BUS. MGR.

THE JUNIOR CLASS OF SWEETBRIAR

COLLEGE PRESENTS THE Briar Patch OF NINETEEN FORTY

A SYMBOL OF BEAUTY

TO VIRGINIA from Vermont in the early years of the eighteenth century, came Elijah Fletcher. He married Marie Antoinette Crawford, of the Plantation of Tusculum, and through the years acquired of the rolling red Amherst County land more than eight thousand acres, Sweet Briar Plantation. Elijah had a daughter who married James Henry Williams and they in turn had a daughter, Daisy. A clever, affectionate, practical girl was Daisy, observant, sensitive to the beauty of her home. She was interested in everything and everyone on the plantation. We know from her diary, some of the things that caught her attention through the days. "Martha and I set out twenty-one little evergreens today. . . . Blossom has a calf. . . . I began my lessons today, French, Italian, Literature, Rhetoric, Astronomy and good many other things. . . . There is a man at the Courthouse sick with the smallpox. . . . I rode with Logan to look at the little calves and up in the mountain. . . . Last night a mink killed four sitting hens. . . . The most beautiful day I most ever saw, the mountains are clear and deep blue and the air is so sweet with the mock orange." Daisy died when she was sixteen. Mr. and Mrs. Williams, that she might be remembered, planned that Sweet Briar should become a college.

This is Sweet Briar College, founded in 1901 in memory of Daisy Williams. To the girls who come here through the years, Sweet Briar gives much, but nothing of greater value than two things it gave also to Daisy Williams: the experience of being a member of a simple friendly community, and the remembrance of days spent among scenes of gracious, natural beauty.

LASTING AND Sweetbriar GROWING FOREVER

"BUT IN THE FUTURE WE'LL FIND IT

OF THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE

In the pages that follow, we bring you Sweet Briar as we have known it. Through each part of this book, College Classes, Organizations, Athletics, May Day, we hope you will find in future years words that suggest happy memories, a face that recalls a friend, a scene that brings back thoughts of old surroundings.

And although we have printed here only material things, we hope that in these pages you will see reminders of the gracious beauty that can accompany college life, of lasting friendships, of valuable work, of all the things we are glad to think are the heart of life at Sweet Briar.

WITHIN OUR HEARTS"

BERNICE DRAKE LILL

TO BERNICE DRAKE LILL, faculty advisor to the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-one, we dedicate the 1940 BRIAR PATCH. With sincere appreciation we acknowledge the enthusiastic help she has given to every one of us since our first days at Sweet Briar, and offer her our undying admiration and our lasting esteem.

The Sweet Briar Alumnae Association was organized "to further the well-being of the college, its graduates and former students, by increasing the interests of its members in the college and in each other." As a group the Alumnae Association has been active in keeping up the contacts between those who were Sweet Briar and those who are Sweet Briar of today. The Alumnae News brings to the alumnae events of interest on the campus, or those affecting Sweet Briar alumnae directly or indirectly.

Each year at Founders' Day, as a memorial to a man who served Sweet Briar first as legal advisor and later as chairman of its board of directors, the Alumnae Association gives the Manson Memorial Scholarship to an upperclassman, who in addition to distinguishing herself in the academic fields, has shown qualities which make her a real leader and contributor to the life of Sweet Briar College. On October 27, 1939, the Manson Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Elizabeth Duke Lee of Wusih, China, a member of the class of 1940.

Sweet Briar Day, held during the Christmas season on December 28th, brings the alumnae together in their many alumnae clubs and groups with students now attending Sweet Briar. The students are thus enabled to know the alumnae of their vicinity, and to give former students a new contact with the college and its development.

GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

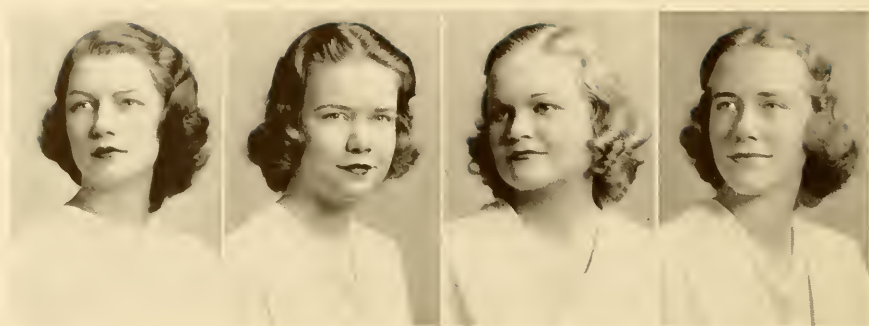

ADVISORY COUNCIL

The tradition of Student Government is of long standing at Sweet Briar, having been inaugurated in 1906. At that time the student body obtained the right of self government, a right which has since been an integral part of the life of the college. Every student is given, through her membership in the Association, the opportunity to develop a sense of individual and community responsibility. The Executive Committee is composed of the officers of the association, the six house presidents and the President of the Freshman class. This year the House Councils were arranged with the idea of placing more responsibility in the hands of every student and of giving each girl the opportunity to profit by the actual administration of her own government. House Councils are small groups in each of the six dormitories to whom the executive committee delegates the power to administer the Campus, House, Social, and Smoking Regulations of the Association. Every girl in college belongs to a House Council at some time during the year. The Advisory Council consists of representatives from the various organizations and the four classes. It is the place of the group to consider, with suggestions and criticisms, matters of general community interest.

"High spiritual and humanitarian principles make the Y. W. C. A. an influential body in Sweet Briar life and in that of the community. Friendly relations on campus, vital Christian living and philanthropic service, these are the high aims toward which the Y. W. C. A. works."

The Y shows an interest in the students of Sweet Briar even before they arrive on campus, by sending them a handbook to inform them of all the rules, regulations, traditions of their new home. When students arrive they are entertained with a party introducing them to the easy familiarity of Sweet Briar life. The Y. W. C. A. coffee hours throughout the year are invaluable in fostering and increasing cordial relations between faculty and students. The evening chapel services have become through their simplicity and serenity, a cherished part of the life here at Sweet Briar.

The activities of the Y. W. C. A. are not limited to our own campus; they include the maintenance of educational and recreational activities for the children in several Amherst County schools, participation in national conferences and contacts with other branches of the Y. W. C. A.

In order to be a member of Tau Phi a girl must stand for everything that Sweet Briar holds dear. She must cooperate in student and community activities, and try to promote an interest in art, literature, and science. A high standard of academic work is presupposed, but even more emphasis is laid upon attitude and effort in behalf of Sweet Briar. "The value of an honorary society of the nature of Tau Phi lies both in the ideals it holds and the challenge it presents to the community. It remains useful as long as its members' activity expresses these ideals and the community continues to think them valuable."

New Tau Phis are announced each fall at the first step singing of the year, and the announcement is always attended with much excitement.

The activities of Tau Phi include ushering at lectures and concerts and taking charge of the Browsing Room and the Study Galleries of the Library on Sunday.

FRANCES MOSES Chairman

The Orientation Committee forms the most effective link between the new students and the old. This organization, composed of representatives of the three upper classes attempts to welcome and acclimate the new students in the academic, social and extra-curricular activities of the college life. The members of the committee become acquainted with their groups of Freshmen during the summer, and in the fall attempt to bring them together by means of informal picnics, dinners, and parties.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee administers the social regulations at Sweet Briar and endeavors to make the social life of the college as gracious and natural as possible. The committee is composed of thirteen seniors and one junior whose duties include acting as hostesses in the dining room, where on Friday night they provide music during dinner, acting as hostesses for lectures and concerts, sponsoring Saturday night dances, regulating social standards, and dealing with social problems that arise.

Riders to the Sea . . .

Paint and Patches, Sweet Briar's dramatic club, endeavors to bring to the students new experiences in, and appreciation of the drama. The club gives to every girl interested in the theater an opportunity to work in whatever department she may choose. The members of Paint and Patches find means of self-expression not only in acting but in designing, and creating scenery and costumes, in handling stage lighting, and make up. In December the club produces a play with cast and staff chosen entirely from among the new students at Sweet Briar.

"SCHOOL FOR HUSBANDS"

The first presentation of Paints and Patches in 1939-40 was Arthur Guiterman's adaptation of "School for Husbands" by Molière. This play was a landmark in the development of the club as it combined for the first time the work of the departments of music, dancing, and drama.

"THE ADDING MACHINE"

The second large production of the year was the "Adding Machine" by Elmer Rice, presented by Paint and Patches in March.

The December production was three one-act plays, "Riders to the Sea" by J. M. Synge, "Maker of Dreams" by Oliphant Downs, "Marriage Proposal" by Anton Chekhov. These plays were produced by new students.

Paint and Patches ended an extremely successful season with the presentation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It." This play was given at Commencement in the Box-wood Gardens.

SONG LEADERS

Step Singing is one of the most characteristic of Sweet Briar's customs. Every fine fall and spring Sunday afternoon, finds the entire school assembled in the quadrangle, to sing the school and class songs. Under the direction of the song leaders each class presents new and original songs as well as the traditional ones. This year the song leader of the Senior class is Anna Mae Feuchtenberger; of the Juniors, Mary James; Sophomores, Phyllis Sherman; Freshmen, Anne Tweedy.

Step Singing is the occasion of the announcement, in the fall, of the new members of Tau Phi, and in the spring of those of Q. V.

Q. V. is an honorary society of Sophomores, founded by the class of 1937. Members are chosen by the organization of the preceding year on the basis of their enthusiasm and constructive attitude during their Freshman year. In order that they may work effectively, their identity is kept secret throughout their Sophomore year, until a step-singing early in May, when their names are announced. To be a member of Q. The Sweet Briar choir is made up of members chosen for their vocal talent, musical interest, and responsibility. Although its main purpose is to provide music for the Sunday church services, it is a vital part of several other special services throughout the year, among them the Christmas Carol Service and the Baccalaureate Service in June.

This year, as an innovation, the choir sponsored the formation of the Chapel Choir. This organization provides the music for the weekly chapel services.

GLEE CLUB

The Sweet Briar Glee Club is composed of eighty girls whose talent and enthusiasm combine to make their club one of the most outstanding on campus. The most important programs for this year were a joint concert with the Princeton Glee Club in Washington and another joint concert with the Harvard University Symphony Orchestra at Sweet Briar. One other important event was the annual Carol singing in which the Glee Club was aided by the Senior Class in spreading Christmas cheer at vacation time.

Mystery and carefully guarded secrecy surround the comings and goings of this organization. In fact, Sweet Briar knows the Chung Mungs chiefly by their white robed mid-night marches and their stirring chants. But these thirteen upper classmen who are chosen for "being particularly prominent in all fields of college life and being particularly consecrated to the instigation and procreation of the well-rounded college citizen" from a group whose fine spirit and worthwhile aims make them a powerful influence on campus.

Chung Mung lends its originality and vitality to many worthwhile ends. Its members sponsor the Annual Red Cross Roll Call at Sweet Briar, and this year more than doubled the collections of any previous year.

In its more frivolous moments the Club provides hilarious entertainment for the college, with such diversion as a Circus, a play, and the "Chung Mung Calendar."

STUDENT HANDBOOK

MARY PETTY JOHNSTON
Editor

Published annually under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association, the Student's Handbook furnishes an indispensable means of acquainting new students with the standards of college life. The Handbook contains the Constitution and By-Laws of the Student Government Association, the Faculty Rulings, the regulations of the Athletic Association, the College Directory, the College Calendar for the current year, and miscellaneous information concerning organizations, traditions and precedents. Each year the Handbook records the changes in the Constitutions of the three major organizations. In addition, the Handbook contains the advertisements of various Lynchburg firms whose reliability is vouched for by the Handbook. Each new student receives a copy of the Handbook before she arrives at Sweet Briar, and through it she becomes familiar with the campus life in all its phases.

THE 1940

ANNE DEWEY, Editor

The BRIAR PATCH is, each year, the project of the Junior class. As far as is practical, an attempt is made for the class as a whole to participate in its publication. Although most of the work is done by an appointed staff under the direction of the Editor and Business Manager, the cooperation and understanding of the entire class play a great part in its successful completion. Work on an annual of the size and the scope of the BRIAR PATCH gives to the members of the staff valuable experience in art work, writing, business transaction, and other fields of journalism.

The staff of the BRIAR PATCH has initiated several changes this year. Chief among these is the writing of a constitution in order to secure a more efficient administration of the organization.

In addition, the staff has produced a supplement to the book in the form of a separately bound May Day section. The proceeds from the sale of this supplement are to be given by the staff to the Auditorium Fund.

The first BRIAR PATCH was published thirty years ago and since that time the book has grown and developed to keep pace with the development of the College. It has grown actually in size as well as in scope, the new, large size book being adopted four years ago. Each year there are additions to the record of student activities, and an increased effort on the part of the staff to produce an interesting and authentic portrayal of life at Sweet Briar. It is the fundamental purpose of the BRIAR PATCH to present to the student body in general and to the Senior Class in particular, by means of words and pictures, a tangible reminder of each college year. It is to this end that the staff of this book has worked and it is with sincere affection that we present the BRIAR PATCH to the Class of 1940.

PRESS CLUB

The purpose of the Press Club is to familiarize its members with the fundamentals of news writing and gathering; to stimulate interest in journalism and to provide a channel through which such interest may be made effective; and to supply an intelligent basis of experience and accomplishment for the selection of the staff of the Sweet Briar News.

AINTS AND ASSES

This jolly group of burly burlesquers whose main purpose in life is to recreate Paint and Patches productions in a ridiculous fashion, adds much color to Sweet Briar campus. Their theatrical efforts presented in Commons several nights after a Paint and Patches play, reveal their originality, versatility, and general mental caliber. "Each member of this talented group is the charming possessor of a scintillating sense of the silly, as well as of hysterically humorous histrionic ability." The shrill whistles in the spring marks the emergence of these "poisonality" girls as the guardians of the grass.

*"Aints and Asses,
Swellest lasses, not one nub
Paint and Patches
Are no matches for our club.
We aint no Sarah Bernhardts,
Jane Cowl has got us licked,
But for our 'Poisonality'
We was picked."*

LAETITIA SEIBELS

STUDIO CLUB

LAETITIA SEIBELS.....President
FRANCES CHICHESTER.....Secretary

The Studio Club tries to draw together those who are interested in sketching or painting, and limits its membership to those whose work, submitted for entrance, shows a fair amount of ability. Meetings are held to give opportunities for sketching, round table discussion, and furthering interest in art. Sketching expeditions and picnics are held in the spring and fall as a means of increasing the member's opportunities to gain experience in drawing and painting.

BARBARA GODFREY
President

EVELYN CANTEY
Vice-President

PENELOPE LEWIS
Secretary-Treasurer

The Camera Club was formed in 1938. When organized its purpose was to create and keep alive a genuine interest in photography, its principles and practices, and to provide a medium for exchange and presentation of ideas emphasizing the practical aspects. The Club still holds this same purpose, its members being required only to have an active interest in photography.

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

CONSTANCE CURRIE President
LOIS FERNLEY..... Vice-President

SHIRLEY SHAW Secretary
JOAN DEVORE Treasurer

Under the direction of the Athletic Association an attempt is made to balance the academic life of Dancing, Lake, Hiking, Lacrosse, Baseball, Basketball, Tennis, Archery.

The association is comprised of ten departments representing the major sports, Hockey, Riding, Dancing, Lake, Hiking, Lacrosse, Baseball, Basketball, Tennis, Archery.

Shaw, Currie, Fernley, DeVore

HOCKEY

ETHEL GURNEY . . . Heads of Hockey . . . LOUISE LEMBECK

Hockey is the sport most universally participated in at Sweet Briar. A comparatively warm climate makes possible a long season in which activities range from classes for beginners to the work of the varsity squad. There are games of various kinds throughout the season, many inter-class games as well as special games played by the Varsity and Freshman teams at Sweet Briar and at other schools. The Varsity team each year plays in the Virginia tournament.

VARSIITY SQUAD

Eager, Littleton, Sweney, Frost, Gurney, Boynton, Currie, Hauslein, Lembeck, Fernley, Jackson, Devore, Ringer, Law, Ogden, Appell

RIDING

HAZEL STERRETT, Head of Riding

An excellent stable makes riding one of Sweet Briar's most popular sports. In addition to a fine group of mounts, there is an indoor riding ring, an outdoor ring, and miles of bridle paths through beautiful scenery.

RIDING LEADERS

Beasley, Currie, Daudt, Gilmer, Graves, Gwinn, Ringer, Sheldon, Sterrett, Withington

BASKETBALL

HELEN SCHMID, Head of Basketball

Basketball is chief in importance among the winter competitive sports at Sweet Briar. Excellent coaching and training afford each student a good opportunity to perfect her game.

Inter-collegiate varsity competition is provided by such teams as William and Mary, Westhampton, Virginia Inter-mont and Beaver College. In addition, there are inter-class games, inter-dorm contests and the most anticipated of all, the North vs. South game.

VARSITY SQUAD

Appell, Brown-Serman, Clark, Currie, Hanger, Hauslein, Lembeck, Littleton, Ringer, Shaw, Sorenson, Thomas, Ward, Withington, Woods, Wycoff

CLARA CALL
Head of Dancing

THE DANCE

Dancing plays an important part in the physical education program at Sweet Briar. This form of activity offers not only excellent, healthful exercise, but an opportunity for creative work. Classes for academic credit are held during the winter and spring but, in addition, there is ample opportunity for extra-curricular participation. There are three dance organizations, Tanz Zirkel, Dance Group, Choreography Group, whose work varies in aim and difficulty. This year recitals were presented in November and in February.

CHOREOGRAPHY

Bennett, Breedlove, Call, Gwinn, Jackson, Meacham, Moses, Ripley

DANCE GROUP

Baldwin, Brooks, Craighill, Davenport, E. Hill, Holman, Seibels, E. Vongehr, Wilson

TANZ ZIRKEL

Barrett, Cummings, Cunningham, Diggs, Dunn, B. Engh, Mitchell, Moore, Morrison, Schall, Tower, Wilkinson

THE LAKE

MILDRED MITCHELL, Head of Lake

One of the most popular places on Sweet Briar campus, especially in the spring and early fall, is the Lake. A council of Junior and Senior Lifesavers is effectively working during these times, to insure safety for swimmers. In the spring, on Lake Day, students have the opportunity to take part in swimming, boating, and canoe races, and a competitive meet is held between the classes. Gala Night, which follows Lake Day, is a favorite event for which beautiful floats are built by the various classes and societies. The athletic awards for the year, and the results of Lake Day competition are announced on this night.

M. Mitchell

HIKING

BENADINE NEWBY, Head of Hiking

The hiking leaders have been concerned primarily with the outing cabin this year. Under their administration it has become an ideal place for relaxation. Groups may spend the night there or they may go up during the day to split and saw wood, or if a person is of an artistic nature, a bench or table may be built. The cabin makes a nice half-way house for hikes to the mountain. Bells and regulations may become tedious, but even a debutante's nerves could be soothed by the super slumber and the hilarious fun that old clothes, good steaks, excellent company, provide at the cabin.

HIKING LEADERS

Fernley, Godfrey, Ingles, Newby, Phinizz
Noyes, Chamberlain, Johnson, Peyton

LACROSSE

ARLINE SIMMEN, Head of Lacrosse

Lacrosse, although a comparatively new sport at Sweet Briar, has already taken its place as one of the major Fall athletic activities. Class and inter-class games are held regularly. Optional Lacrosse is offered in the Spring and is enthusiastically participated in by players of all classes.

VARSITY SQUAD

Albray, Currie, Fernley, Godfrey, Gurney, Greene, M. P. Johnston, Kniskern, Lembeck, Simmen, Shaw, Taylor, I. Vongehr

BASEBALL

BARBARA GODFREY, Head of Baseball

For the past several years, baseball at Sweet Briar has been an optional sport and thus enjoyed by the few but enthusiastic players who come out for practices in the spring. Hardball has always been played. This year, however, softball, as part of the winter games program, was introduced and proved very popular. The highlight of the season is the Campus Character-Varsity game at which time both the faculty and the students turn out to cheer their respective teams. The game usually ends with the challenge to another game the next week. The season normally consists of bi-weekly practices, interclass games and the Campus Character games.

BASEBALL TEAM

Appell, Currie, Godfrey, Greene, Gurney, Lembeck, Schmid, Shaw, Withington

BARBARA GODFREY

TENNIS

EUNICE FOSS, Head of Tennis

Tennis at Sweet Briar begins in the fall when an enthusiastic lot of players throng to the six fine courts which are in constant demand. Although this popular sport is not given for academic credit in the fall, there are two tournaments, one for Freshmen and another for the community. These create much interest, but unfortunately by their completion, winter has arrived and it is necessary to put aside racquets until spring when the tennis season opens again. Then inter-class and inter-scholastic games cause much excitement, and rivalry between teams is great.

Sweeney, Bracher, Tomlin, Forsch, Brown-Serman

Eunice Foss

ARCHERY

PATRICIA ANN DOWLING, Head of Archery

Archery is one of Sweet Briar's most enjoyable sports, popular with both the athletic and not so very athletic Briarites. Several tournaments for beginners only are held throughout the year and for the more advanced student there are different types of competition: College ladder, best individual score, and best class average.

COPPER

MAN'S OLDEST AND
MOST USEFUL METAL

Copper, the oldest of the metals of commerce, was first mined and used by man before the days of Menes, the first Egyptian King who reigned about 4500 B. C. Through the flight of centuries the fragments of history left to us by primitive man are fragments of copper. His copper hatchets, his knives and copper spearheads, and his few crude copper appliances for toil and comfort, tell us all that is known of that evolutionary period of civilization.

Historians tell us that copper was first found by a half savage tribe that inhabited the Island of Cyprus. The metal was so useful that it became their most cherished possession. They named it in honor of their home, "Cyprian Metal." It has kept that name through the ages. Our tongues changed it to "Copper."

Without copper there would not be possible today most modern inventions which have made this the greatest age in all the history of all the world. Modern civilization would falter, for copper permeates all modern progress. In everyday life it is the agent of business and industry and the promoter of our comforts.

The rust loss in the United States annually exceeds a billion dollars. That is more than the interest on the National Debt. Copper and its alloys, brass and bronze, are nonferrous metals and cannot rust.

We will be very glad to send you upon request a copy of our book "Your Home, Protect it with Copper, Brass and Bronze."

RED ⊕ CROSS BEDDING

—the Choice of Virginia's Finer
Schools and Homes

For half a century, the makers of Red Cross products have been supplying better bedding—mattresses, springs, steel beds and sofa beds—to Virginia's finer homes and schools. Among the famous Virginia colleges we have had the pleasure of serving is SWEET BRIAR, where for many years Red Cross Mattresses and Springs have been contributing to the health and comfort of the students.

Creating
YEAR BOOKS
of Distinction

It takes more than "good printing" to create outstanding Year Books.

The J. P. Bell Company specializes in Year Books. First, by maintaining a Department of trained and experienced personnel that devotes its entire time to the planning and servicing of Year Books. Secondly, by maintaining a plant equipped with the most modern machinery, manned by skilled, efficient workmen.

There is a certain mark of Distinction on all J. P. Bell publications.
